Date: Tuesday, July 28, 2009      Time: 9 am
Location: Check Cashing - 5720 Bellaire, Houston, TX
Offense: Aggravated Robbery Deadly Weapon - Handgun

The Houston Police Department's Robbery Division is seeking the public's assistance in identifying robbery suspects.

The victim was employed by a check cashing business located at 5720 Bellaire. The victim was the employee who was responsible for opening the business on July 28, 2009 at 9 a.m. As the victim was opening the door to the business, she noticed a Hispanic male in his forties, leaning against the hood of a gold color Dodge or Chrysler mini van in front of the business. The victim locked the door behind her and conducted her opening procedures. The victim then unlocked the door and asked the male if he wanted to wire any money, to which he said yes. The victim turned around and started to walk towards the business counter. It was at this time that the male grabbed the victim by her arms, shoving and pushing her towards the back of the business. The male was threatening to kill her and her family if she did not cooperate and give him all the money in the business. The male demanded money from the safe. The victim opened the safe and gave the male all the money. The victim then saw a second Hispanic male standing there, who appeared older than the first male. Both males continued to terrorize the victim by tying her up and threatening to kill her and her family. The victim did see a black handgun which looked like a Glock to her. The victim saw this gun in the waistband of the younger male.

The younger male attempted to sexually assault the victim, but the older male stopped the younger male. The males tied up the victim with a computer cable and plastic trash bags and left the business.
